

Interview Questions for Author Kay DiBianca

1. Why did you write this book?
2. What there any one person who was the inspiration for the book?
3. In the book, you say God is active in the world, even in the midst of tragedy. Why do you feel that way?
4. What is the most important thing readers will learn from reading your book?
5. People listening to this often struggle with forgiveness. What advice can you give them to deal with that?
6. When do you write? Is it easier to write in the morning or at night?
7. An important scene in the book takes place during a Shabbat dinner. Why did you include that?
8. Where can we buy your book?